Youth Sunday
June 5th, 10am

Mark your calendars for a 10am combined worship service in the SANCTUARY on June 5th. Children of all ages will participate in this special worship service. During the service graduating seniors will be honored and confirmands will join the church.

Vacation Bible School will be held Sunday, June 26th through the Thursday, June 30th from 6pm-8:30pm. Our theme this year is "Give Me that Old Time Religion." We have lots of fun stuff planned for the week. Please mark your calendars and invite all of your friends. Registration forms and a volunteer sign up sheet are located in the colonnade. Let's work together to make this the best VBS ever!

NEWS

HERE, IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD & BEYOND

I'm very much looking forward to our worship together on June 5th, which will be our Youth Sunday. This Ten o'clock combined worship service in the sanctuary will be led by our youth. We will also honor our High School Graduates and receive as new members our Confirmands.

Given the tornado destruction in the neighborhood, various agencies still need volunteers to help in various ways as a part of the continuing rebuilding process. Furthermore, receiving a request from the Red Cross, we will be considering the possibility of sponsoring another Blood Drive.

Due to the recent summary tally of Presbytery votes, the previous so-called Chastity and Fidelity section of our Book of Order (G-6.0106b) has been replaced with new wording.

With respect to this issue and related concerns, please see (an insert in this newsletter) "A Pastoral Letter" from the Rev. Dr. David A. Walker, our General Presbyter & Stated Clerk.

In Christian Love,

Stuart

Breadbasket News

On May 10th, First Presbyterian volunteers Joanna Dempsey, Jana Wilkinson, Joan Edson, Anna Rhea Bordeaux, Vickie Wilkerson and Joan Suddarth prepared and served 155 grateful patrons at the Breadbasket.

The menu for the day was tuna noodle casserole, mixed vegetables, tossed green salad, fruit salad, potato salad with rolls, assorted desserts and Gatorade to drink.

Our church serves at the Breadbasket on the second Tuesday of each month. Anyone willing to help, please call Joanna Dempsey at 718-5969.
