Thursday, October 8th

8am-12pm

Harper Center

Kerr Drug will host a flu shot clinic for us in the Harper Center. Medicare (red, white & blue card) and Blue Cross/Blue Shield will be filed for you. If you do not have Medicare or Blue Cross/Blue Shield, the cost per shot is $30.00.

No appointment is necessary, so come anytime between 8am and 12pm to get your shot and stay healthy this flu season!

Want to sing, celebrate, worship and fellowship (not to mention eat!!)? Join us Sunday, October 11th at 9:00 a.m. as we set a goal of 100 people in our contemporary service. Plan to bring a friend and all your family along with a little food for a unique time together. The music will be superb, the message inspiring, and the food delicious! We will have a celebration brunch following the service in the McIver Fellowship Hall. So bring yourself and brunch goodies and let's celebrate our ever growing contemporary service. See you there!

David

P.S.

If you have enjoyed the music so far, just wait until you hear what we have for you that Sunday!!

Missing You

Given the current housing market, Hannah, Ethan & I still find ourselves in Wadesboro. I had hoped the school and church year would kick off with us settled in Sanford. Sadly, that has not been the case. So, in faith we wait in Wadesboro.

As we wait, we prepare to move in anticipation of being a part of our new church family and community in Sanford.

Initially we were able to worship with you on Sundays, and Hannah and Ethan enjoyed attending our Youth gatherings. Regrettably, that is no longer possible.

Due to a fetlock injury, we moved Quinn (Hannah's 20-month old gelding) to a different pasture & barn location. Morning and afternoon, Hannah and I attend to his recovery.

With the Fall academic quarter unfolding, we are actively engaged with High School studies, Scouting, Karate--and of course our horses: Quinn, Faline, and Willow.

We pray this "in-between season" will conclude soon.

We look forward to our family living under one roof...in our hometown of Sanford...with you!

In Christian Love,

Babbs

A new Bible study will begin Tues., Oct 6th. The study will last for 8 weeks and will meet on Tuesdays in the church library at both 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Dale Miller and Ken Lynde will lead this study on the Gospel of Mark.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all the members of First Presbyterian Church, the choirs and classes for all the prayers, cards, flowers and phone calls after the passing of my dad. It has been such a comfort in a very difficult time to have the support of my church family.

CUOC News

Thank you for continuing to contribute to the Christians United Outreach Center (CUOC). Our next food offering will be October 18th. Any non-perishable food is greatly appreciated.

SHEPHERD'S CORNER

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured.

Hebrews 13:1-3

The Presbyterian Women would like to thank Paul Kelly and Ronnie Lemon for assembling the shelves in the Women's storage room. They look and work great!

It is such an honor to be a part of such a caring church as ours. My family and I were amazed at such a shower of cards, memorials, flowers, and just plain love at Dutch's passing. He would have been so pleased with the service, and we certainly appreciate David and the choir participating, singing one of his favorite songs which he had requested. Thanks you from the bottom of our hearts.

Keenager Banquet

We look forward to your attendance at our annual Keenager Banquet!
(members 60 years of age or older)

We would like for the members of the Hospitality Committee, many of whom are Keenagers, to be able to sit down and enjoy the festivities.

For this to be possible, we have decided to have our dinner catered. We will be asking that each person attending pay six dollars to help defray the cost. The balance will be paid by the Presbyterian Women. Your money should be paid when you register. (Invitations/registrations will be mailed in November) This will be imperative to enable us to determine the number and the cost.
