SHEPHERD'S CORNER

The shepherd led his own sheep to pasture, spent the day with them there and sometimes the night also. (Gen. 31:40, S. of Sol. 1:7, Luke 2:8) He defended them from wild beasts and robbers, kept the restless sheep from trespassing on cultivated ground, searched for strayed sheep and brought them back and tenderly cared for the delicate and the weak. (Ezek. 34, Luke 15, Isa. 40, Zech. 11)

The family of Geraldine Bridges wishes to express our sincere appreciation for all the cards that have been sent, for all the food that was prepared, for all the support offered to us, and for all the prayers lifted up in our name. We treasure the friendship and the love that has been shown to us in our loss.

Dear Friends at First Presbyterian,

We miss you! However, we are SO happy to be within ten minutes of our seven month old and three year old grandsons. Oh, yes, and their parents, too! Thank you for all the phone calls (336-331-3262), emails (klynde@triad.rr.com), and cards. We have attended Clemmons Presbyterian Church - which appears to be a warm, friendly congregation - when in town. On June 20th Ken had the joy of baptizing Riley, our youngest grandson. If in the Winston-Salem area please phone - we will meet for lunch.

Helen and Ken Lynde

Words cannot express my heartfelt thanks for the love and support shown me and my family during this difficult time in our lives.

I appreciate the cards, prayers and visits so much.

I thank the youth group and the children for the goodies. Their visits meant so much.

Your kindness will always be remembered.

God is good.
